Amnesty Scotland Updates

Amnesty International’s Scotland office recently introduced a bulletin, which can be found via this link.

AI Scotland’s has template letters for activists in Scotland.

One current AI Scotland campaign relates to public funding being provided by Scottish Enterprise. An FOI request by AI indicated that funding may have been awarded to companies selling arms components to countries that are breaching international law. The AI Scotland campaign calls for proper due diligence concerning human rights checks in relation to public funding.

More general information is available on the work of Amnesty’s Scotland office.

5. Guest Speaker: Neil Cowan (Programme Director for Scotland Amnesty)

- Neil was welcomed to the meeting. He advised that he had been in post for just less than a year and that he was keen to meet local groups. Amnesty's Scotland office has four staff – Neil (Director) Stewart (Policy Manager, dealing primarily with legal and related matters) Liz Thomson and Jackson (Admin / office management). The email address for the AI Scotland office is Scotland@amnesty.org.uk
- Neil referenced the recent AI report on the Gaza genocide ("You Feel You are Subhuman: Israel's Genocide in Gaza")
- Neil also spoke about the Prevent duty, which is intended to stop people becoming terrorists and which the Scottish Government has a responsibility for delivering within Scotland. The major AIUK report on the Prevent Duty in 2024 set out a wide range of concerns about the unfair and unintended effects implementation of the policy was having.
- c.75% of the work of AI's Scotland Office involves a focus on seeking to influence the Scottish Government and/or interpreting AIUK policy to ensure coherence with the unique Scottish policy context in order that it properly reflects the situation in Scotland. This also includes advising AIUK staff of particular issues relating to Scotland.
- A major focus had been on working with the Scottish Government and other key stakeholders on the development of a Scottish Human Rights Bill. This proposed policy has since been deprioritised by the Scottish Government with regard to the current Parliamentary business timetable. However, work is ongoing to seek to get this matter back on the agenda of the various political parties.
- The AI Scotland office team has also been campaigning on the issue of how organisations such as Scottish Enterprise appraise grant aid to companies in order to ensure public money is not spent in unethical ways. This included a focus on Scottish Enterprise allegedly providing grant aid to defence sector companies whose products may have been used in Israel's campaign in Gaza. Further details on this campaign are included in this AI Press Release. Also see the Appendix to the minutes (below), including a call to action.

- Neil summarised AI Scotland's priorities for 2025 as 1.) a Human Rights Bill for Scotland, 2. Abolition of Prevent, 3. The Scottish Enterprise issue noted above, and planning ahead to the 2026 Scottish Parliament elections.
- A series of Q&A discussion then followed Neil's initial input. Neil was thanked for his input and he left the meeting.

10. 2025 will be Glasgow West group's 50th anniversary!

Do we want to do an event to mark it? Ideas:

- publicity in local press to help raise awareness of AI & recruit new members & raise funds
- Resources:
 - (a) Andrew has resources from former Group secretary, Brian Donnelly, who was active from the 1970s.
 - (b) Merle has a collection of carefully collated minutes and correspondence covering the period from the Group's founding in 1975 until 2002. This includes local press cuttings and information on the planning and events associated with our Freedom Festival, which was an art festival that took place in the city over several months in 1995.
 - (c) Involve John Gerard & wife Margaret - previous member - Mal has contact details
 - (d) Jill Young - Christine has contact details
 - (e) Mitchell Library might be able to take our archive (thanks Merle!) - Mitchell Library asked us to, firstly, confirm that neither AIUK nor AI Scotland Office wished to host the archive.
- AIUK responded to Andrew confirmed they have no objection and that they think the Mitchell Library is a good solution for depositing the archive.
- No response has been received from AI's Scotland Office regarding this.
 - Andrew suggested we may wish to delay depositing the archive in the Mitchell in case we wish to utilise some of the historic information in publicity events to help raise awareness of the work of AI

Additional Info

Email from Liz from the Scotland Office:

Some people had asked what they can do to support our recent work in the Amnesty Scotland office on Scottish public funding for arms companies.

We recently wrote to the Deputy First Minister calling for a review of the human rights due diligence performed before awarding companies public grants: read more about this on the AIUK website.

This also had some coverage on the BBC's news page and Reporting Scotland.

Freedom of Information requests we submitted showed that multiple arms manufacturers are being awarded grants by Scottish Enterprise, yet not a single company failed or was flagged as a concern by the due diligence procedures currently in place. Some of these companies have been linked to supplying states accused of war crimes, including Saudi Arabia and Israel.

Enterprise agencies administer public money. It is the Scottish government's overall responsibility to act if it is thought that public money could be caught up in supply chains linked to human rights abuses.

I have attached two template letters for anyone who would like to help by writing to politicians to underline our calls. The first is a letter to the Scottish government's Minister for Business, Richard Lochhead, i have included his email address. The second is suggested wording for anyone who would like to write to their MSPs asking them to support our calls and raise the issue in parliament. As you are probably aware you can find contact details for your constituency and regional MSPs by entering your postcode here: <https://www.parliament.scot/msps>

I would really appreciate it if you could share any responses you get with me as it's hugely helpful for my advocacy work. The MSPs we have already spoke to about this include Patrick Harvie, Ross Greer (Scottish Green Party) and Katy Clark (Scottish Labour).

AGM & National Conference: 5th-6th July 2025

Teaching & Learning Building, University of Birmingham

In 2025, Amnesty UK members and activists will be coming together for a weekend to celebrate our powerful movement, take part in AIUK democracy, meet, network and plan for the year to come.

We hope you enjoyed Amplify Festival 2024. In 2025, we'll be reimagining Amplify as a flagship moment for AIUK activists and members, a space for the movement to gather. Welcome to 'Amplify Summit': a weekend bringing together the AGM alongside workshops and masterclasses.

We'll be...

- Participating in AIUK democracy in the 2025 AGM
- Meeting and networking with activists from across the movement
- Hearing amazing activists and campaigners speak in masterclasses
- Participating in campaigning and activism workshops
- Celebrating the incredible work of AIUK activists and members

The event will be open to AIUK Section members and activists only. It will not be a public event, but rather a gathering space for the AIUK movement. The event will incorporate both important AIUK governance and additional sessions designed to entertain, upskill, and spark conversation.

Whether you are a long-time activist in a local group, or a brand-new activist who has recently joined your student network, this event is for you. It will be the largest gathering of AIUK's base. We cannot wait to welcome you to the Amplify Summit.

We hope you will join us in Birmingham!

Please note that the AIUK AGM is open to AIUK Section members only. If you would like to become a member, you can join as an individual on the AIUK website or the group you are a member of can affiliate. Please join by the end of March to receive the official notice of the AGM. Please reach out to your Community Organising staff member for more information.

Tickets and more information will be launched in early 2025, so keep an eye out for that. We're delighted to say that we will be offering bursaries for travel and accommodation for attendees to come to Birmingham for the full weekend. There will be a specific process to follow for this, information to follow.

Important Governance Information

Deadline for Resolutions is 7 March 2025. Forms to submit resolutions will be available on the AGM page of our website from January 2025 at the latest.

Any questions, please email agm@amnesty.org.uk.

Elections for AGM and Board Roles

Amnesty International UK Section is a member-led movement. The Section Board and the key AGM officers are elected by the members. To keep our democracy healthy and to give members a choice of leaders, it is important that candidates put themselves forward. In 2025, we are seeking candidates for the following roles:

AGM Chair to ensure that our most important members' meeting runs smoothly and everyone feels welcome and included on the day

One member of the Standing Orders Committee to help the AGM Chair by interpreting the AGM rules and ensuring that they are followed by everyone.

Three members of the Members and Directors Appeals Committee to act as an appeals body for members who have been expelled from the membership, or Board members who have been removed from the board. It is an important role but one that is, thankfully, rarely called on.

Four Board members:

- One who is a member aged between 18 and 23 on 25 July 2025
- One member over the age of 16 years on 25 July 2025, who must be nominated by a local group
- Two “unreserved seats” meaning that any member over the age of 16 years can stand

The deadline for nominations for all of these roles is 7 March 2025. Further information about the roles and the nomination process will be available on the AIUK website before the end of the year. Please note that for the Board member roles, candidates must have been a member of the Section since at least 7 September 2024.

We know that these roles can seem daunting but support will be provided. If you have any questions, would like to find out more, or would like an informal discussion, please contact the Nominations Sub-Committee by emailing nomcom@amnesty.org.uk.

Any questions about the event, please contact activistevents@amnesty.org.uk
